

Merriam's Sunshine Scavenger Hunt

May 1 – September 30

Bring on the Just Right sunshine! Starting May 1, Merriam will launch the Sunshine Scavenger Hunt for the summer. You can seek and find eight sunshines all across town. It's easy to play along – just look for the sunshine icon  by following these clues to their locations. Use this handy tracker to check off your sunshines and have fun exploring all that Merriam has to offer! For an added bonus, snap a pic and tag @ExploreMerriam on  . Who knows, maybe the Merriam sunshine squad will pick your pic and send you a sunshiney surprise! Learn more at exploremerriam.com/sunshine.

1

"No garden truly blooms until butterflies have danced upon it."

2

Tasty samples will tempt your palate at this fruity-inspired locale on the West Frontage Road.

3

Howdy pardner – enjoy Wild West play here, but don't squat with your spurs on.

4

Maps and guides and bears, oh my!

5

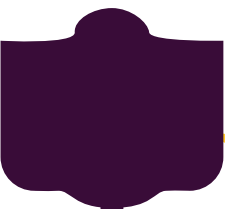

Founder David Gee Campbell resided here.

6

Peruse the monthly exhibit of talented artists in this quaint space on Merriam Drive.

Shiny spheres of three. Look at your reflection, what do you see?

8

7

A former space for education, this location is now a church and famous for its historic "walkout" in 1948.

Look for this sunshine!
exploremerriam.com/sunshine